- 1413 6 in., .30 cal. 4 shot pepper box revolver, barrels tilt up by side lever, metallic cartridge, wooden handles. Odd type, rare. Worth $4.00.

OLD FIRE ARMS, ETC.—Continued.

- 1414 12 in., cal. .42, 5-shot cap and ball revolver, side hammer, checkered grip, wooden handles, back action, marked on outside lock LONDON ARMORY CO., with very rare type of hammer. Nice appearing, but defective, needs mainspring, etc. Very rare pattern. Good chance for some one to make repairs.
- 1415 48 in., 3 barreled shotgun, cal. .50. Two barrels like ordinary gun side by side above, with back action percussion locks and 2 hammers on top. Each lock is marked JOSH GOLCHER. Third barrel cal. .60 between and underneath, with peculiar hook-shaped hammer underneath all three. Two peculiar triggers work the 3 locks. No place for trigger-guard. Two brass tipped wooden ram-rods at side. Curly maple stock with cap box, steel butt plate, adjustable sight on top. Perfect working order, fine condition. We believe this gun to be the only one of its kind. If anyone has ever heard of another, please let us know. Note: Golcher, whose name is on the locks, was a famous rifle maker and made the finest Indian and Kentucky rifles many years ago.
